PROGRAM NOTES

On June 21, KRAB presents the only genuine pagan celebration of the summer solstice, produced by John Townes of P.M.S.E. (Pagans for a More Symbolic Environment). Also, a panel discussion called "Gender in the Year 2200" was one of the programs produced from this year's Northwest Science Fiction Conference.
Eric Hummel and Mary Wanner move their science magazine, "Aardvark to Zygote," to a Tuesday afternoon setting at 3:00.

Libby Sinclair is producing an entire evening of programming from the recent Childbirth Conference which featured keynote speeches by anthropologist Ashley Montagu and Sylvia Goodman.

There are a number of readings and improvisations this month, with one of the most interesting being an excerpted presentation of a recent interview with anti-gay activist Anita Bryant.

Musically, Phil Andrus is producing two Friday night programs of recordings made at the 1977 Festival of American Fiddle Tunes at Port Townsend. KRAB also recorded a recent avant-garde concert called "Synthesis" at and/or which features William O. Smith, Stuart Dempster, and David Mahler. On Tuesday Night Live, a one-man band, Lloyd Paige, plays perhaps the only solo version of the 1812 Oveture. Two weeks later, Sue Thompson and friends give you an evening of traditional Irish music.

"Radio Activity" begins focusing on the June 24-25 demonstration at Satsop as Live without Trident passes to gauntlet to Crab-shell Alliance. Nick Licata presents a show on condominium displacement, and the issues raised by the Coalition on Government Spying's suit against the Seattle Police Dept. are discussed in other public affairs programs.

That's scratching the surface. Inside you'll find more on the George Carlin obscenity case, "tulipomania," styles of sexuality, a Thai boxing match, Post-Mao China...

APRIL MARATHON REPORT

Proceeds from our near record April Marathon are coming in slowly. Of $15,500 pledged, we have received $8,775. This has enabled us to pay all our immediately pressing bills and begin to gather funds for operating expenses and long standing debts. We appreciate the prompt response of those of you who have sent in your pledges. If you are having any trouble receiving guides, receipts, Bank Amerikrabs, etc. please let us know. And if you see any of those people who haven't sent in their pledges....
